YES SIR—These farrowing houses are regular "Hog Traps" for they catch the little pigs and keep them

ALIVE

Saving a pig in each litter marks the difference between profit and loss. And our farrowing houses save them every time.

Call for plans and material to make yours from, or take one of our factory made ones—they are ready for the pigs.

The Globe-Democrat published an article recently that the taxes in Callaway County would be at least $50,000.00 more than last year and that it would be practically all paid by the farmers. We wonder how much increase Bates will get as it is about the same in wealth and population as Callaway. We also wonder what the farmers of Bates will say when they have to pay this increased burden by selling their corn at 25 cents per bushel.

F. P. Chiles has placed 200 cattle on his ranch in West Boone township. Mr. Chiles has one of the largest ranches in the county.

J. F. Bedinger has traded his home in this city to Mrs. Lula Allfree for her fine farm south of Adrian. Mr. Bedinger will occupy Mrs. Allfree's property for the fall and winter.
